Practice Management

A consultation is set with the client where I obtain their financial objectives. I then use Riskalyze to obtain their risk/volatility score and then consult with them on creating a portfolio based on those same financial objectives. I then create a diverse portfolio that best compliments their risk scores. If they reach the financial minimums and risk level, I will add in the strategies of a separate account manager, Corbett Road. as well.

Performance of my client portfolios are measured and reported using Envestnet.

Portfolios are reviewed with clients at least annually.
